LEARN . . .

To believe in something not yet proved and to underwrite it with our lives; it is the only way we can leave the future open.

LIVE . . .

So live — decently, fearlessly, joyously — and don't forget that in the long run it is not the years in your life but the life in your years that counts.

Adlai E. Stevenson

LEAD . . .

Contentment lies not in the enjoyment of ease — a life of luxury — but comes only to him that labors and overcomes — to him that performs the task in hand and reaps the satisfaction of work well done.

INVOLVEMENT . . .

The simple enjoyment of a group sing-along under the trees . . . the pride of buying your first ASU sweater . . . the game that was won as a result of good teamwork and support from the crowd . . . the friends that were made from across the study table and in a crowd of interested Indians.

REGIMENT REGULATES IRRATIONAL REGISTRATION

Decisions too hard for a new freshman to make...what does this little number mean??? What did you put down in that third blank??? "English 10003A, section 4-closed": Rats! Back to the advisor... total confusion and a few disappointments... long lines and tired feet... finally, the mug shot and home "free" — for a while.

MASSIVE MUD— FLINGING FROLICS

The 1972 Autumn Frolics were dubbed "Mud Frolics" for reasons which need no explanation. The ever-popular mud pit, originally dug for the tug-o-war (which did not take place), was occupied quite frequently by a number of students who, incidently, doubled as mud-loving pigs. There was just enough time for a hose-down before the dance. Even though mud could be detected in the hair and ears of students at the dance, the 1972 Frolics were counted as successful in the mud-caked eyes of the students who participated.

SEASONAL SINGING

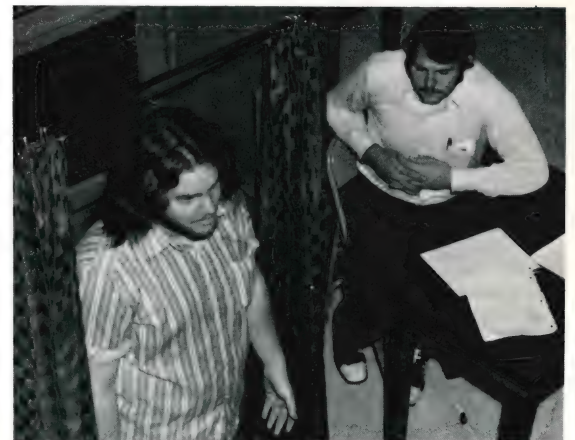

"To all the world our wish will be a star of hope for your Christmas Tree." So began the first song of the Christmas Concert performed before an interested, respectful audience of students and staff. Ending with a reverent "sleep in heavenly peace" The Singers left the hearts of their listeners filled with the Christmas Spirit.

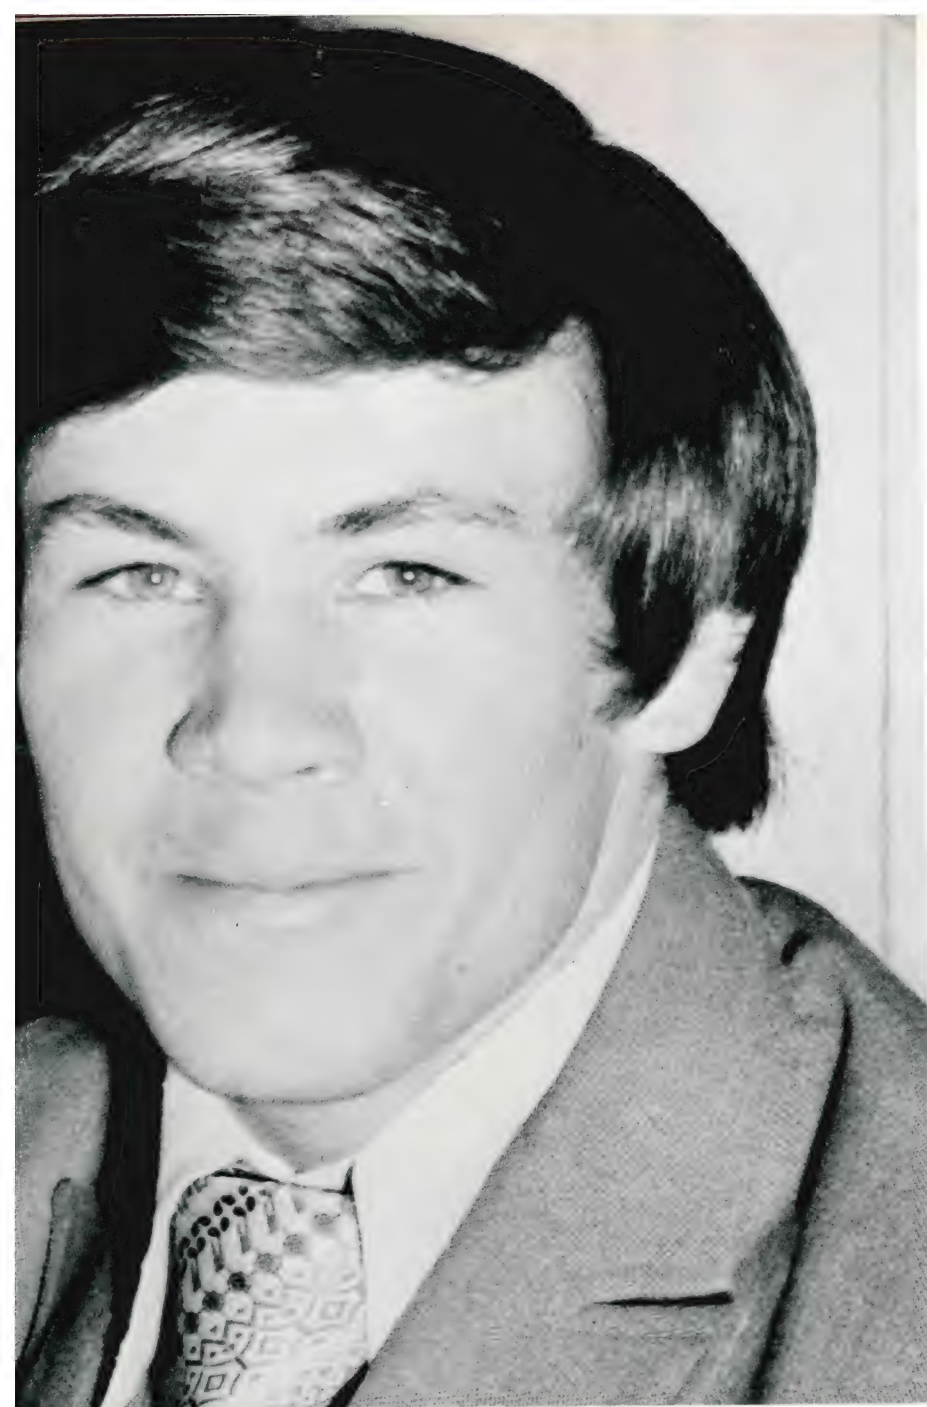

APATHY CASTS WINNING BALLOT

Visitor to the corridor of State Hall on November 1 was a voting machine which was entered by approximately 184 students out of the 465 enrolled on campus. The number that voted at the election depicts the large number of young people and older adults nationwide who want change but will not vote when the time comes to make that change.

AGRI DAY

Approximately 1,200 students from thirty Arkansas high schools attended the annual Agri Day, sponsored by the Agriculture Department of ASU-BB. The second largest event held on Beebe Campus, Agri Day gives futures agricultural majors an opportunity to have first-hand experiences in judging farm-related subjects such as dairy products, livestock, farm mechanics, meats and poultry.

The sweepstakes winner was Greenbrier with the highest overall score, followed by Guy-Perkins ranking second, and Cabot in third place.

DEATH OF A WARRIOR

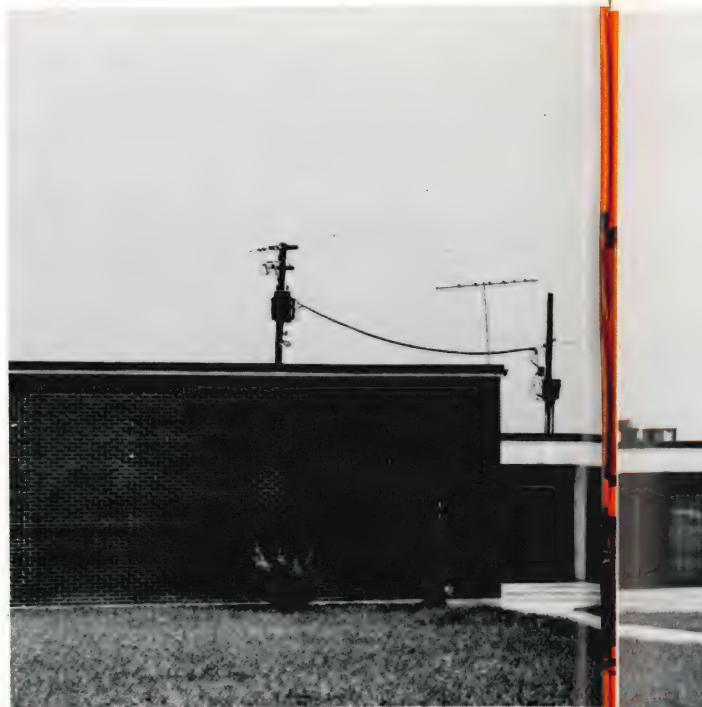

Within the quiet, solemn walls of this building rests a 47-year-old Warrior in solitude. But he was not always alone; his abode was not always peaceful. It seems as if it was only last week he was witness to an all-night card game; and only yesterday that he patiently watched the ball bounce back and forth on the ping pong table, his walls vibrating with the sound of hard rock music.

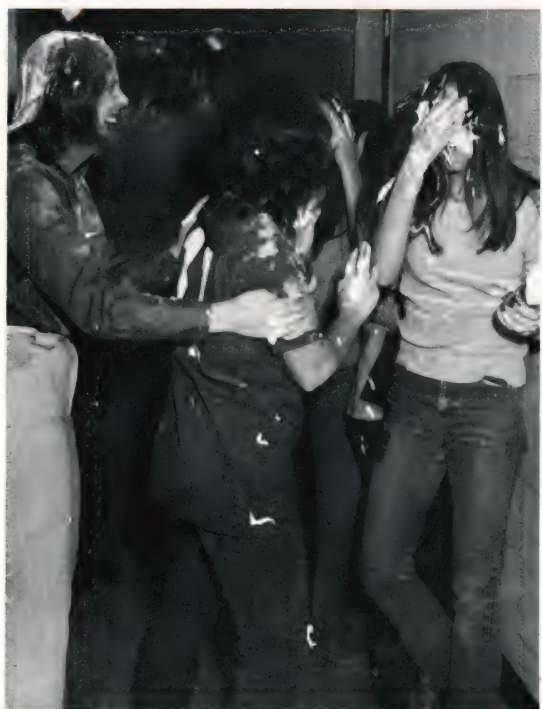

He may miss the dirty clothes in his corners and the numerous pictures on his walls. He may even miss the few times the students were quiet and studying. But the halls are empty now. He is alone. Goodnight, brave Warrior. Rest in peace.

PRINCESS HALL

Changing the sheets that have been slept on for two weeks... those late night study get-togethers that turn out to be gossip hours... reading Beowulf to the beat of KAAY... making it to the telephone to let him know one more time... playing the guitar for a little relaxation... hoping that the soap in your eyes is Johnson's 'No More Tears'... pleasant dreams, Princess.

COMPETITION

The blood that boiled at the thought of losing by one point . . . the sweat that went into the exciting victory . . . the tears that came after winning that all-important game.

INDIAN CAGERS

The ASU—BB Indians, coached Don Pitts, opened their 1971-72 season with a 97-78 win over College of the Ozarks' JV on the home court Nov. 6. Sophomore Don Swiney of Palestine led the Indians with 26 points while grabbing seven steals.

Swiney, sophomore John Horton Turrell, Clarendon freshman Threets, and Poplar Grove freshman Jamed Smith led the Indian attack scoring in double figures to down the Harding College JV's, 82-72, Nov. 9.

Despite Horton's strong rebound work and outstanding offensive play by Swiney and Threets, the Indians suffered their first defeat of the season Nov. 17, bowing to Phillips County, 102-93.

To no avail, four ASU—BB players scored in double figures as the Indians lost to Southern Baptist Nov. 18, 83-69.

A half time lead initiated the fine defensive playing of Threets and Clarendon freshman Lonnie Stewart, vanished Nov. 20, as the Indians were edged 71-67 by the Arkansas College JV's.

The Indians fourth loss in a row came at the hands of Jacksonville (Texas) JC, Nov. 27. Leading at halftime, turnovers and poor ball handling contributed to the 75-61 defeat.

On Nov. 28, a win over Eastern Oklahoma JC improved the team spirits at ASU—BB. The margin of victory was 85-81, as the Indians led by Threets, Swiney, and freshman Danny Thompson of North Little Rock held on to win.

Damacus sophomore Wayne Delph, Horton, and Threets kept the Indians alive Dec. 4, as ASU—BB defeated Crowley's Ridge, 94-77.

A let-down for the Indians came as they fell 77-72 to the JV's of Ouachita. Leading 40-39 at half, fine efforts by Threets, Horton, and Stewart weren't enough.

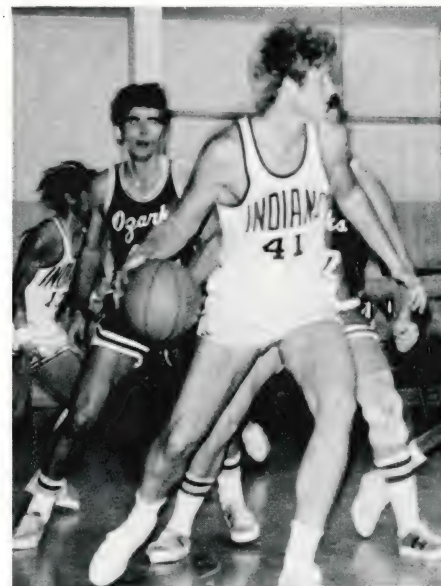

Swiney, Thompson, Delph, Threets, and Horton focus on a loose ball.

Time-out strategy insures easy season opener win.

Swiney goes in for two escorted by Thompson and Smith.

Horton looks for an open man.

A good block steals two points from Threats.

Threets leads the way as the Indians take the floor.

THREETS NAMED TO ALL-CONFERENCE TEAM

the Indians defeated Westark, 70-65, as they went the final stretch of the season. Threets, Horton, Thompson, and Swiney continued to dominate the league, each with double-figure points.

Although leading at half-time, the high scoring of Thompson and Threets was not enough to sustain the Indians as they were edged by Phillips County, 77-72. Traveling to Fort Smith, the Indians bounced back, defeating Westark 76-64. Leading the scoring was Threets with 25 points and Smith scoring 17 points. Again leading at half, Southern Baptist put on a big final team effort to defeat the Indians, 65-61. Threets with 21 points was the leading scorer.

A hard-fought Homecoming game brought victory for the Indians before a capacity crowd over the Central Baptist Mustangs, 67-64. Threets and Horton shared scoring honors with 18 and 17 points respectively.

Playing in Searcy, the Indians lost to the Harding JVs in a one-sided contest, 80-62. High-point man for the Indians was Smith with 16 points, followed by Thompson and Stewart with 13 and 12 points.

Traveling to Walnut Ridge, the Indians were on the wrong side of the scoreboard as they bowed to Southern Baptist, 68-76. Strong rebounding by Horton and Threets could not quell the opponent's drive as they lost the final game of the season.

The Indians ended the year at 500 with a 4-4 conference record with 11 wins and 10 losses in overall scheduled play.

AIDS CAPTURED SECOND PLACE IN AWESA TOURNEY

Traveling to Henderson the Maids ran cold to suffer their worst defeat of the season, falling to Henderson, 53-36. Bouncing back the Maids completely overpowered Scott Independents, 75-36, as Babbs led the scoring with 20 points, followed by 17 points for Hartwick Grider with 15 points. Entertaining Henderson on the home court, the Maids ran their first full court press, man to man, in the first half to shake the Henderson offense. In the second half a change of pace kept the Reddies guessing just enough to give the Maids the "revenge victory", 62-59. Hartwick, Babbs, Crider, and Coots all made the double-figure scoring column. Falling before Southern State on the Magnolia campus, 47-61, the Maids were a long way from home and very tired. Hartwick, Babbs, and Crider continued to lead the scoring.

Maids' coach, Jeannie Lindsey, plans strategy during a tense time-out.

Hartwick drives in for a lay-up.

Edwards watches from the free throw line as the ball rolls the rim.

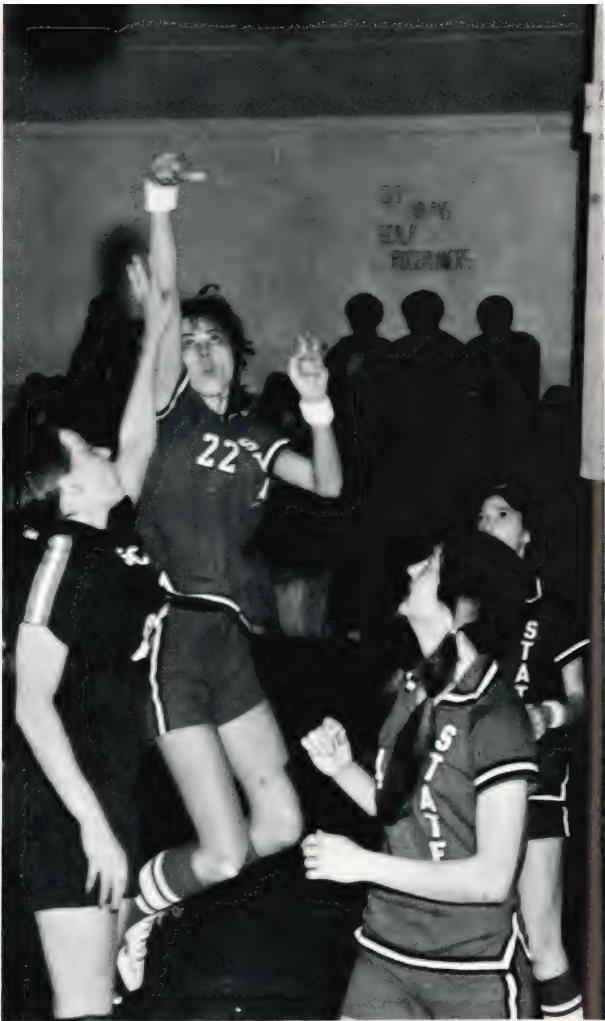

Sure, it's nice, but it isn't first!

Goad looks for an opening.

Crider goes up for two.

abbs gets two points blocked.

MAIDS WIN 14 — LOSE 5 IN SCHEDULED PLAY

Returning to Henderson, the Maids were the only two-year college to play in the AWESA Double Elimination Tourney, defeating the University of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, 74-36, in their first game. A thrilling victory over Henderson, 51-48, gave the Maids their second tournament win. Another close game made it 3 straight as the Maids nipped Southern State, 50-48. The Maids went into the finals of the tourney undefeated, but the Henderson Reddies were fired up and at home as they squeezed a victory over the Maids, 44-51. After an hour's rest, the Maids were again defeated by Henderson in the play-off game, 56-62, to give the Maids second place in their first year in the SWESA Tourney.

Behind at half-time, 23-29, the Maids rallied in the last half to defeat the Scott Independents, 54-52, as Hartwick, Goad, and Crider led the scoring.

In their final appearance of the year, the Maids swamped Everett's Glass in an exhibition game, 82-50. Hartwick, Babbs, Coots, Goad, and Crider all scored in the double figures.

With strong floorplay by Debbie Whitcomb and Linda Clifton and under the coaching of Jeannie Lindsey, the Indian Maids closed the season with 14 wins and 5 losses, an enviable record in anyone's book.

ACTIVITY ASSORTMENT

A quick telephone call before class...a girl watcher's sly peek...a heavy music break...an interesting pick-up...test preparation in the wee-hours...the only interesting chapter in the book...a sociable tea party.

approximately 57 per cent of the graduates received their diplomas in Early Childhood Education which is part of the Federal Headstart Program. Eva Lee Graves, director of the Headstart Supplementary Program presented an honorary degree to Mr. John Elton, Headstart Director for Ozark Opportunities, in recognition of his contributions to the program.

Degrees in nine fields were presented to graduates by Dean Walter England.

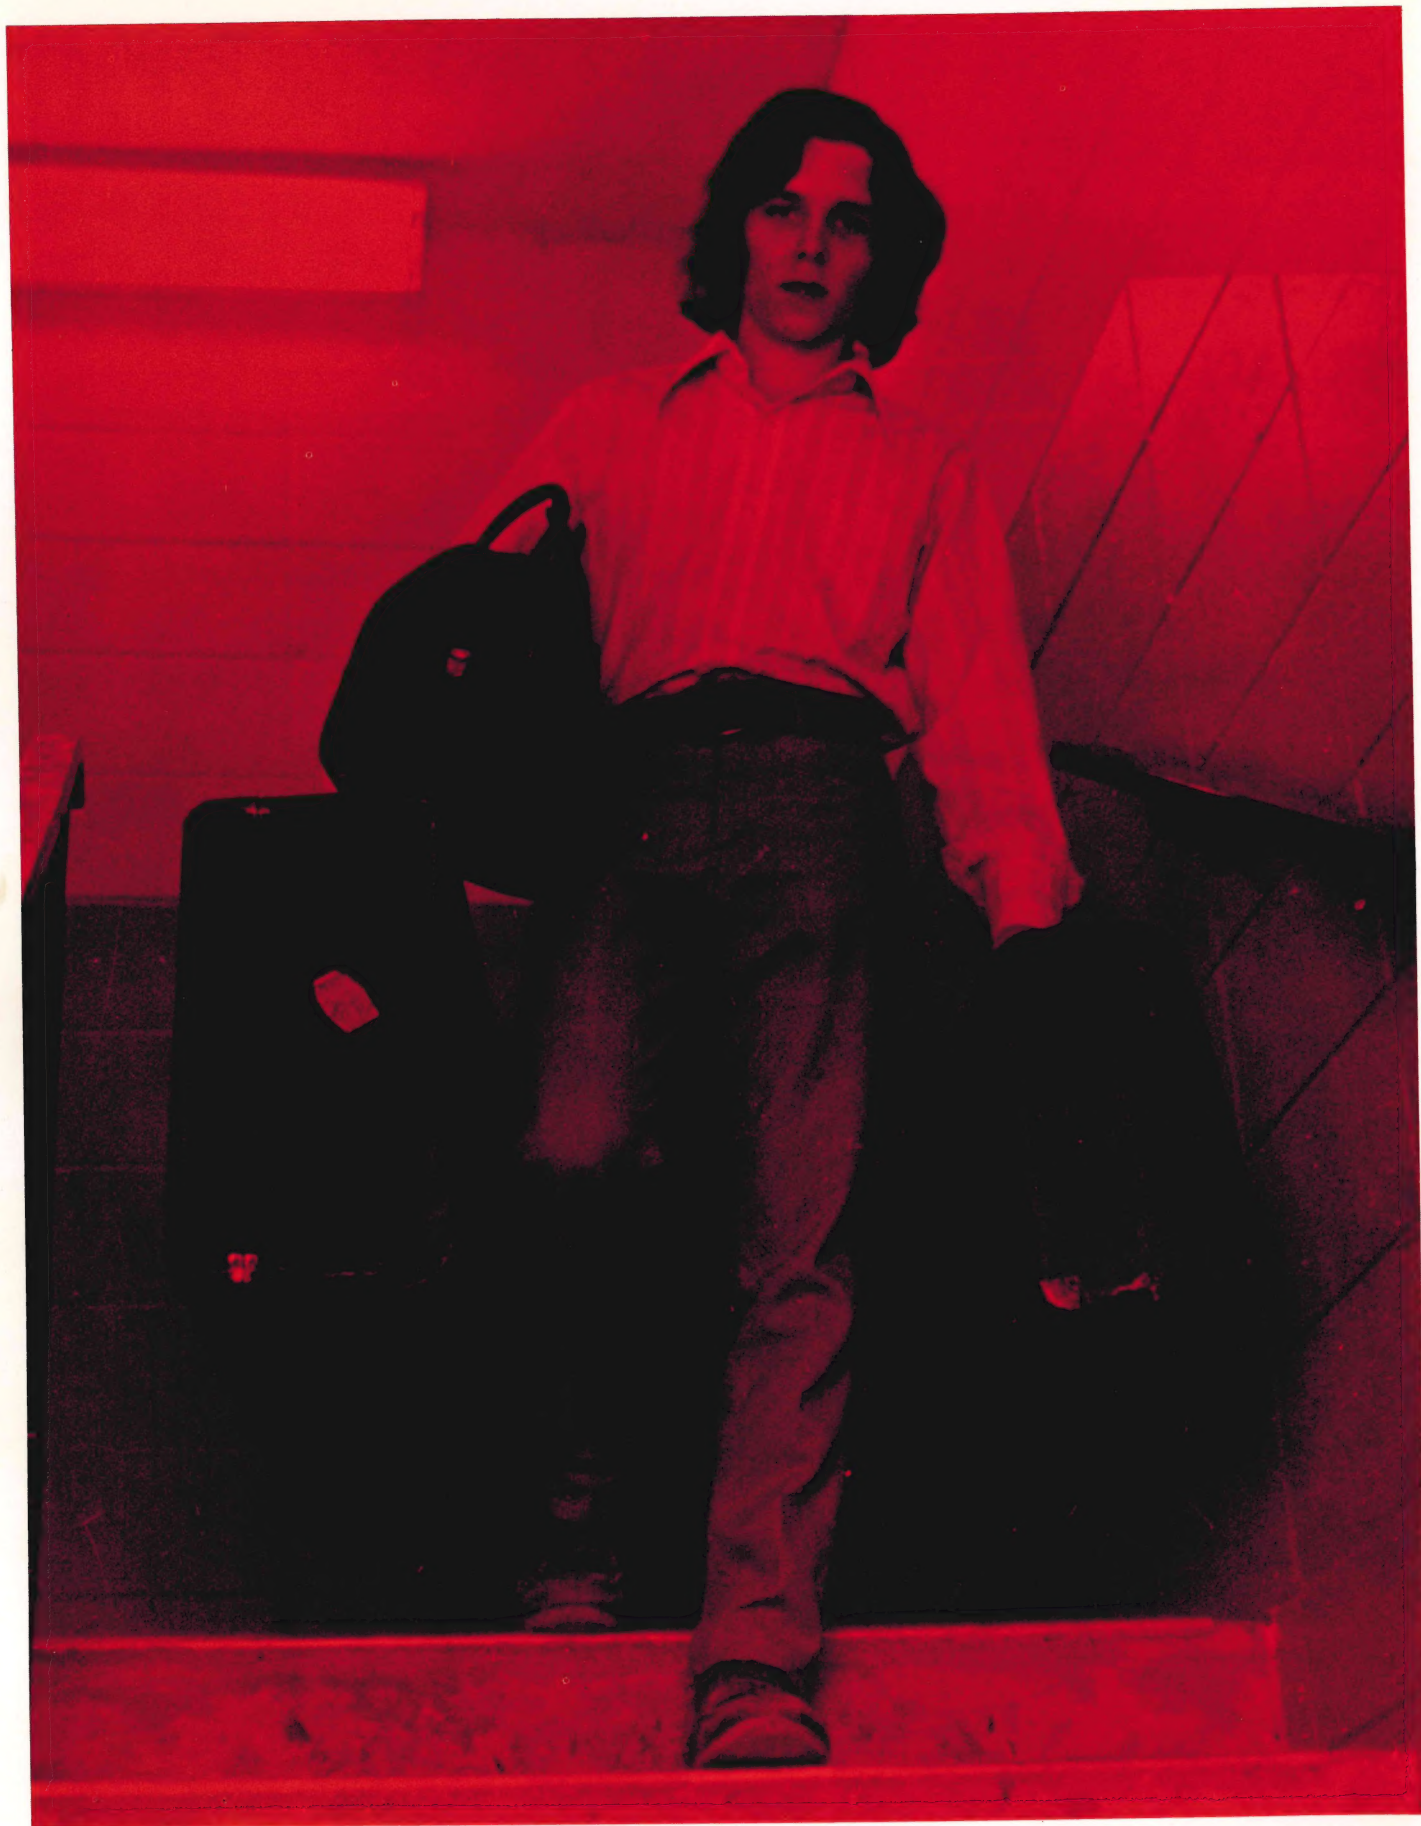

COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES

Associate of Arts degrees were presented to 65 candidates on May 4 in the State Hall Auditorium. State Senator Bill Walmsley delivered the major address. Walter D. England, dean of the college, and Dr. R. C. Davis, vice-president for academic affairs at the University of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, presented the degrees.

Dr. Davis, U of A-Pine Bluff Vice-President, presented degrees to candidates of the Pine Bluff campus under programs conducted by ASU-BB.

State Senator Walmsley of District 16 relaxed at the reception held in the Howell Center following the ceremonies.
